Attention: The letters za and ra denote ḷ and ṛ, respectively, of Tamil. Also note that r̥ra sounds almost like ṭra, r̥ri like ṭri, and so on. The consonant-cluster n̥ra is pronounced somewhere between nra and nḍra. It is, however, colloquially acceptable to pronounce the clusters r̥ra and n̥ra as tta and nna, respectively.
