॥ iti śrīsūktanāmāvalih saṃpūrṇā ॥

Sages capable of envisioning the inner meaning of the mantras have found the above mentioned names and have explained their meaning. If one worships these names during the daily Lakṣmī pūja, it is not only auspicious for them but also would result in Her grace descending very soon on them. Several people have composed one thousand and eight names pertaining to Śrī Mahālakṣmī alone. However, all those are not mentioned in the scriptures. In other words, they can not be equal to the sounds of the veda mantras that are apauruṣeya (eternal and not originating from any one). The above 53 names derived from the veda mantram, have the sanction (and authority) of the vedas for use in the ritual for winning the grace of Śrī Mahālakṣmī.
